CONFERENCE CLINICIAN

Rae Moses, Choral and Vocal Editor for Carl Fischer Music and BriLee Music, will be the featured headliner clinician for the 2010 Summer TN-ACDA Conference. Rae is also Music Director for Class Act Productions and Director of Music at Grace Presbyterian Church in The Woodlands, TX. His works are published in the BriLee catalog, as well as with Carl Fischer, Southern Music, and Hal Leonard.

Rae Moses is a former high school Choral Director in Klein, TX, a suburb of Houston. His choirs received highest honors at festivals and was invited to perform an honor concert in 1990 at the Texas Music Educators Association State Conference. He received both his Bachelor's of Music Education and Master's of Music degrees from Sam Houston State University, where he was a student of Dr. John Paul and Dr. Bev Henson.

Following his tenure as Director of Choirs at Klein Forest HS, Rae entered the Educational Technology field where he spent 10 years consulting with school districts on effective use of technology in Curriculum and Instruction.

Rae is a frequently invited clinician, conductor and accompanist of Honor Choirs around the country.
