SELECTED LIST OF WORLD CHORAL MUSIC RESOURCES
PRINT AND TECHNOLOGY

www.globalvoicesinsong.com

“Global Voices is the outcome of my ten-year quest to build bridges of tolerance and understanding from my classroom to cultures of the world. My journeys led me to conclude that learning songs and dances from diverse cultures is a uniquely powerful means of building these bridges.” –Mary Goetze Leck, H. and David Frego.  Creating Artistry through Movement: Dalcroze Eurhythmics in the Choral Setting.  Hal Leonard HL08744511, 60 minutes.  DVD.

www.molliestone.org

Mollie Stone/Vela Vela: This site is about Mollie Stone and her DVD entitled “Vela Vela” that is designed to help choral conductors, music educators and singers learn about black South African choral music and how to teach it in the oral/aural tradition.

www.folkways.si.edu

Smithsonian Folkways Recordings is the nonprofit record label of the Smithsonian Institution.  "We are dedicated to supporting cultural diversity and increased understanding among peoples through the documentation, preservation, and dissemination of sound.

Village Harmony is Larry Gordon and Patty Cuyler’s Vermont based organization that sponsors several touring choral ensembles and singing camps; great resource for information about shape note singing and the vocal music of Eastern Europe and Africa.

August, 2012